Discussion Items

Discussion item
LARIMER COUNTY SENIOR TRANSPORTATION WORK GROUP UPDATE	Alex explained the background for two key grants, NADTC and the §5304 projects. Katy noted the success of the Expert Panel. Connie noted it was a good project to see what services are available and make sure everything is up to date.
VOA PRESENTATION	Andrew Davies and Jeanne Mackenzie from Volunteers of America (VOA) presented about the Retired Seniors Volunteer Program (RSVP) program, including how to be a member, what it means to be a volunteer, and the relationship between RSVP and PAFC. The program provides insurance for those volunteering, including for driving, injuries, court fees, etc. The form to sign up is available online. Katy asked if you can be a volunteer if you are getting paid and Andrew said you cannot, but PAFC allows you to judge for yourself. Jeanne works to right-size volunteers to what is needed. Job descriptions for volunteers are similar to write-ups for Self-Directed Volunteer Teams (SDVT) from PAFC.
2019 WORK PLAN	 Ideas for projects in 2019 include: Spanish Bustang Travel Training, which could be a train-the-trainer or translation service. Fort Collins/Transfort volunteer travel training More English Travel Trainings FCBikes discussions Neighborhood Action Plans and how to access transportation Outreach guide and goals Pro-31 Safe Driving/education Community event and forum (mix CarFit, travel training, and other educational pieces in one event) – southern and northern Larimer County
