

What We Do

From highways to trails, the NFRMPO is responsible for planning and funding the transportation systems that connect people and places along the North Front Range. Transportation is a major source of air pollutants like ozone and carbon monoxide. The NFRMPO is responsible for meeting state and national air quality standards.

RideNoCo

RideNoCo is a central hub to discover transportation options in the Northern Colorado region and beyond.

Active Transportation Planning

Connecting the region with a bicycle and pedestrian trail system.

Freight Planning

Planning for the transportation of goods through and across the region.

Regional Transit Planning

Connecting the region through public transportation and vanpooling services.

Congestion Management

Reducing the amount of time vehicles spend on the road.

VanGo™

Providing commuters along the front range with an alternative to driving alone.
