

Executive Summary of the North Front Range Metropolitan Planning Organization
Community Advisory Committee

January 12, 2023

Attendees: York, Brad Ragazzo

Staff: Alex Gordon, AnnaRose Cunningham

2050 RTP: Public Involvement

Cunningham asked for feedback on materials to give away during outreach. The group recommended chip clips, reusable bag for car, and bike or reflective lights.

Gordon introduced the 2050 Regional Transportation Plan and the vision planning process. Cunningham further explained the 10 Year Plan and provided context to the vision plans. York asked if the corridors were predominantly roadway-focused, and Gordon stated the Vision Plans will consider multimodal improvements. Ragazzo added the vision planning should be intuitive when looking at the maps about how people will be able to move across the corridors. Local plans and initiatives should be acknowledged.

Cunningham introduced the Arc StoryMap collection, including the context Story Map and the visioning commenting tool. York suggested adding “(bus)” to the Transit travel option, and Cunningham stated she will add a multiple-mode travel option. Cunningham will clarify Recreation to include “exercise”. York asked to clarify what the “my vision for the corridor is...” asking. York recommended highlighting which community the different corridors cross, specifically with different colors. York recommended making communities grayscale on the fact sheets and adding more labels. The group discussed adding destinations for context about the geography.

Cunningham noted printed out materials will be available when NFRMPO staff table at libraries and around the region. Cunningham will send out the link to the Arc StoryMap and Gordon will update maps based on the feedback provided by the CAC.

Cunningham highlighted the RideNoCo Trip Discovery Tool has launched at <https://discover.rideno.co/#/>. The team worked through some questions about the tool, and they mentioned sharing the information with their networks.

York recommended reaching out to businesses to invite them to participate in the Community Advisory Committee.

The meeting adjourned at 7:33 p.m.
