

Fundamental Wayfinding Element Examples

Decision Sign - Clarifies route options at junctions where more than one potential route exists

Confirmation Sign - Placed after a turn movement or intersection to reassure cyclists that they are on the correct route.

Turn Sign - Used when only one route option exists to indicate a change in route direction.

Supplemental Wayfinding Element Examples

